

Elba Defeats Luverne 16 - 3

The Elba-Luverne football game opened with a bang for the Luverne fans. They received the kick-off on their own 22 yard line and marched downfield to a field goal in eleven plays. Ann out - of - bounds pass completion by Luverne was included in this series and would have put them in better position had the receiver been inside the stripe.

Luverne kicked to Elba and two Luverne players made a hard tackle on Steve Daniels on the Elba 21 yard line and things still looked bad for Elba. Jimmy Cook completed on pass for a first down before Elba bogged down and had to punt. Jimmy Bailey got off a bad punt for him and Luverne had the ball on their 30 yard line. They moved to the Elba 38 before getting a 15 yard penalty back into Luverne territory and two plays later the Luverne quarterback fumbled and Elba recovered.

This was the spark that ignited the Tigers as they marched downfield. Ronnie Powell and Joe Prior catching passes as the first quarter ended.

On the second play of the second quarter Mark May crashed over the line from the three yard line for six points. Joey Daniels added the extra point and the score was 7-3.

On the Elba kick-off, tightend Leon Bullard was downfield before the football was dropped. The receiver on his own 20 yard line, Luverne and Elba exchanged punts and Luverne was still backed up deep in its own territory when the doctors decision as had as Jacobs was needed. Akins said, "The doctor knows what is best for David and the health of my boys comes first." All out for the Opp game is Hickey Nicholson, also a tackle. Nicholson has the flu. With two tackles out the Elba line will be weakened but coaches feel there other boys are ready to step in and fill the holes.

Joe Prior came in for some praise as Akins said, "I am proud of the way Joe ran and caught passes on offense. Akins said the whole offensive line did go. On running plays and improved some on pass protection but must improve much more this week."

Keith Boswell, Joe Prior, Ronnie Powell, Jimmy Bailey all did a good job of catching their passes, said Akins.

All the defense played well according to Akins. They had good pursuit but must do better this week, said Akins. He mentioned that Opp has that running back 180 pound Hines and others that will get away from you if he gets half a chance.

Commenting on the Opp ball game, Akins noted that Opp didn't luck out in their win over Troy according to films of the game. They matched in first downs and in total yardage. Opp did get a few breaks, but in the past Opp makes their breaks and capitalizes on them.

Outstanding on defense were Gary Talbot with 7 individual tackles, Tommy Cape with 7 and Loushua Boyd with 5.

Zion Chapel plays Long High at Skipperville Friday.

..... ELBA WINS

Commenting on the Opp-Florida O-Utted, Akins said Opp lined over 400 times but 9 fumbles, 2 dropped passes made the difference against Opp. Opp lost 6 of the fumbles, 5 inside the 10 yard line and two dropped passes were sure TD's. If they had been caught, according to Akins after viewing the film, The Elba coach said, "Opp always looks to the Elba game and the Elba fans, coaches and players know this."

According to Akins' scouting reports, Opp has two good quarterbacks that can throw the ball well. Starting quarterback is Ken Weeks, 160 pound junior. Opp has 5 offensive linemen that weight 190 or more and six seniors on the team. Again Akins mentioned Hubert Ray Hines, the boy that gave Elba such a big last year and said "He is good."

7TH GRADERS WIN

The Elba 7th Grade football team along with a host of followers journeyed to Luverne Saturday night for the opening game and brought home a victory.

In the first quarter after Elba's running attack was stopped near the goal, Russ Cash scrambled until he found Mickey White in the end zone and hit him for the first score. Winn Westbrook went up the middle on a fake play behind perfect blocking for a two point conversion. The half ended 8-0.

In the last half, Elba's passing opened up Luverne's defense and allowed good runs by Harrelson and Cash. One sensational pass play found Jeffery Bowden running all alone 30 yards down field. Cash hit him perfectly and Bowden went the other 20 yards for the score. Harrelson breaking stride, the defense kept the pressure on Luverne in the last half, the big play being an interception by Harrelson who scampered 35 yards untouched for the score. The last score was on a one yard plunge by Harrelson which was set up with a run by Cash. All 26 boys making the trip were used throughout the game.

Reflections of last week in football are needless to say, most pleasing for fans in this area. Surprises were many, but share with me, if you will, some of the highlights.

It seems that the attitude among Elba Tiger supporters this year has been, "Show us, and we will say about a team which hasn't allowed a touchdown in two games?" Steady is appropriate, for neither Luverne nor Brantley was able to spring the big play.

After experiencing problems with the Luverne off-tackle play early in the game, the entire team's play was excellent. Mike Bullard and David Jacobs were outstanding in the line while Joe Prior made several big plays in the secondary.

Wage - Price - Rent Freeze Enforced By OEP

Request denied" has remained the answer thus far to individuals and firms asking for exemptions from the wage-price-rent freeze, according to the Regional Office of the Office of Emergency Preparedness (OEP) here.

William H. Holloway, Director of Region 4, said no requests for exceptions or exemptions have been approved anywhere in the region. Region 4 has approximately 80 under consideration, he said, the majority asking for permission to raise prices. Regional Directors were recently delegated authority by George A. Lincoln, Director of OEP, to deny requests.

"Many of the requests for price increases are from retailers, utilities, or manufacturers who have raised prices before the freeze," Mr. Holloway said, "and this office will complete action on those which are clearly covered by prior rulings of the President's Cost of Living Council. Others will be forwarded to the national OEP headquarters for review by the Council."

Mr. Holloway said that all of the requests denied by Mr. Lincoln have been denied because the applicant failed to show that a "gross inequity" was being experienced by the applicant as a result of the Economic Stabilization Program.

To those high school seniors, male and female, wishing to pursue a career in nursing, the Army provides tuition, books, fees, plus $292.10 per month to selected students who can qualify under the Walter Reed Army Institute of Nursing Program.

Upon completing two years at a college of their choice, the students resume studies in the University of Maryland School of Nursing and remain in residence at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center. Since meals and lodging are provided at the center, pay is adjusted accordingly.

Upon graduation, a Bachelor of Science Degree is awarded and the nurse receives an appointment as a first lieutenant and receives $600 per month. After completion of the Walter Reed Army Institute of Nursing Program, the student is obligated to the Army for three years service.

Students who can obtain results of the college Entrance Examination Board by Jan. 1972, and have applied to a college can complete an application before the cut-off date, Jan. 15, 1972. For further information on the program write to the Surgeon General, MEDDT-RN Department of the Army, Washington, D. C. 20314.

New loan authorizations by the Farmers Home Administration will enable many distressed farmers to further develop their skills or talents and help supplement the farm family income. Since many rural youth plan to follow farming or some other trade as a vocation and not go to college, financing by FHA has helped to solve their problem.

Many rural youth have started projects at an early age and are now able to continue to enlarge them through FFA loans. In addition to livestock and crops, many have developed recreation or other nonfarm projects including: Hunting reservations, camping facilities, repair shops and trailer parks or modest rental housing.

Persons desiring additional information regarding financing of youth enterprises may contact the Farmers Home Administration office located at 125 East College Street, Enterprise, Alabama.

the table which was covered in beige lace, was a crystal punch service encircled with ivy and yellow mums. Flanking the service were two silver candleholders with yellow tapers. Silver compotes held nuts and bridal mints. Petit fours embossed in yellow and green were served from a silver tray. Miss Henrietta Gaines and Miss Debbie Holloway presided over the refreshment table.

A massive arrangement of yellow, white, burgundy and blue mums graced the gift area. The array of gifts were displayed on tables covered with white linens.

Mrs. Russell chose for the occasion a gold dress with a high rise bodice featuring a wide front tieing belt. A lovely huge corsage of mums, a gift from the hostesses, accented her outfit.

Home for Sewage

A new sewage treatment plant for a 125-home community being constructed by Levitt & Sons in Fresh Pond, N. J., will be housed in a building that will look on the outside like it is just one of the houses. Physical and chemical treatment methods will be used so that the usual settling tanks will not be needed and the plant will be odorless and noiseless.

POOR ORIGINAL

Record Retention Requirements

In case of a fire, flood, or hurricane, what records are absolutely vital to recovering losses and getting back into business? Bookkeeping and maintenance of records are becoming more and more expensive and time-consuming. Which records should the owner-manager keep, and for how long?

The Small Business Administration emphasizes that each business has different record keeping needs. In deciding what records to retain and for how long, make a three to six month study of records you are using and the frequency of their use. Then procedures can be established for the types of records to be retained and for how long.

Many records must be kept to meet legal requirements. The Fair Labor Standards Act specifies that three year retention period for information on employee hours and wages, although supporting data, such as time cards, need not be kept only two years. Federal Income Tax and Social Security Tax records of payments and deductions must be retained for four years. While all accounting records and supporting documentation should be kept until the annual audit of the firm is completed, books of original entry, such as those showing cash receipts and cash disbursements, and all documentation of your city, state and federal income tax returns should be kept for six years. Most state and local governments require sales and use tax returns to be kept for three years. The Alabama Statute of Limitations requires keeping records of accounts payable, such as canceled payroll checks, and general checks for three years. Although accounts receivable are of concern chiefly for unpaid invoices, it is also wise to keep paid invoices for the length of time in which a customer might normally register a complaint.

Records kept as part of business routine should be retained only so long as they have continuing worth to the firm. Job tickets and production orders are valuable only in processing customer questions delivery or quality. Maintenance records should be kept for the life of the equipment.

Space and accessibility are the two main problems in storing records, and it is important to make an index showing the location of each stored record container and file this index in the firm's active records. To cope with limited storage space on the firm's premises, commercial storage - or microfilm might be considered. A periodic review of records of original entry, such as those showing cash receipts and cash disbursements, and all documentation of your city, state and federal income tax returns should be kept

Individual Freedom Suffers Another Setback

Representative George Andrews

Individual freedom suffered another setback last week when the House of Representatives voted to give additional powers to the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission. One of several offensive creations of the Great Society, the EEOC was given the assignment of stopping job discrimination, forbidden by the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

Until now the Commission has been confined to conciliatory actions in dealing with discrimination in employment. Individuals could seek relief in the courts.

The bill passed the House was actually a substitute for a much worse bill, which would have given the EEOC the authority to issue cease-and-desist orders on its own against job discrimination. Such orders are now confined to a court of competent jurisdiction.

BRAINSTORMS

With Ferrin Cox

The appeal of several weeks ago for letters to the editor has been somewhat less than earthshattering, in fact we have printed everyone of them. . . . What you didn't see any? Well neither did I, so no one has any problems - which is good.

I found one either pro-Tennessee or anti-Auburn fan this week. Fred Smith, Jr. offered a wishful thinking prediction that Tennessee would win this week by the score of 98-0. If that was not enough, Fred continued with, "Shug has already won one more game than he should have." Now that is a direct quote and I have witnesses, if any Auburn fan feels he has been slandered!

All the words written about the riots in the nation's prisons seem to go around in circles. First, it is reported that a riot is in progress; then talk begins; next, someone gets killed and the media quotes officials on how it happened. Then some expert comes along and proves the officials did not tell it like it happened (the people were killed some other way). An example of this is the New York case where first reports listed the killed guards as dying with their throats cut. Later experts announced they were shot. While I favor a firm hand in handling such uprisings, I don't feel officials should cast suspicion on themselves not telling the whole truth, even if it hurts a little. Now the general public doesn't know for sure what happened.

Representative Douglas Easters was a bit upset Monday evening when discussing the current situation in Montgomery. He feels the State Senate has waited until the last minute to return major bills to the House so there will be no time for the representatives to make any changes, therefore, they must accept the senate bill or be blamed with destroying the entire program on the last day of the session. The bill that had Eastern upset the most was the Education appropriations bill. He mentioned that the House had sent sufficient revenue bills to the Senate for both the Educational Trust Fund and the Mental Health program but the "big dogs" in the Senate had chosen not to tax the big coal industry in North Alabama but to take 24 million from the "Education Trust Fund. Eastern says that now he must vote against education or against mental health!

NEEDED: A CUTOFF

TIME FOR A NEW LABOR LAW

The Administration's wage-price freeze dramatically illustrated the need for a reform of the nation's labor relations law, which is an inflationary force because of the preponderance of power it gives to labor unions.

Whether almost commonplace twenty and thirty percent wage settlements have been the symptom or the cause of a sick economy can be debated, but it cannot be denied that they happened. Business seemed helpless to do anything but accept the big wages and raise its prices. Meanwhile, foreign countries, without strict pollution controls and relatively lower living standards for their workers, were taking over the American markets in product after product.

Hopefully, free economic competition conducted with a rulebook that is fair to all will come soon. Meanwhile, Congress should initiate legislation to provide a more equitable balance in the collective bargaining process.

Parents Know the Drug Threat

The Child You Save May Be Your Own

A MESSAGE FROM JACK BRUNSON, MAYOR

City of Elba, Alabama

Most of us like to think that the drug threat is a problem in some far off big city, but the fact is that we have a drug threat in our City and County today. For this reason I obtained a series of articles for publication in an effort to communicate with as many parents as possible. This series, as the title implies, will be to give all parents in our community some of the latest information on drug abuse.

Today's Subject Summary of This Series

Those of you who have followed my series on drug abuse have been with me now for the past 15 weeks, and it is my sincere hope that the information I have shared with you has been helpful in learning about drugs and stimulating to the mind in making your personal determination to LEARN MORE.

Parents have long told their children not to use drugs, except under a doctor's prescription, but now you can authoritatively say WHY drugs should not be abused and the many harms that can come to those who do abuse drugs.

Most of our discussions have been on the prevention through knowledge approach to the drug problem, but here I want to state things to watch for that might indicate a person is already using some type of drugs. Ten frequent signs of drug abuse are:

1. Moral ill health. Normal value changes and unusual ideas taking their place.

2. Mental ill health. Emotional extremes with a marked loss of interest in usual goals. Unusually bad grades in school, signs of a change in personality.

3. Physical ill health. Loss of weight, changes in skin color, loss of body tone, unnatural carelessness and sloppiness.

4. Development of a fear complex. Usually convinced that strange schools and strange communities--separated from their parents--isolated from their teachers and from their brothers and sisters and friends with whom they have been reared.

It is not possible to say with precision how many million children are involved in this human tragedy. The Supreme Court says that the Constitution does not require a racial balance, but yet it approves massive busing for the purpose of creating a racial balance.

Today literally millions of innocent school children, white and black, are being herded into buses to be transported against their wills--against the wishes of their parents--and contrary to the best judgment of a fair judge.

Touch & Go

Everything you touch Automatically becomes a part of you. Everyone you touch Will control a part of everything you do. Everywhere you go, Makes a memory to cherish or regret. There's no place to go So the memory you'd just as soon forget.

We decide what we'll remember When we choose to touch or go. We cannot blot out a memory. Or forget the things we know.

Everyone I see Everyone today Can become a part of me They can take my troubles, oh, so far away.

Everything you see Makes a picture that remains eternally.

In Love With Life

Here it is. Title: In Love With Life...or How I Would Be If I Were Killed In An Automobile Accident. Agony klags my mind. I am a statistic. When I first got here I felt very much alone. I was overwhelmed with grief and I expected to find sympathy. I found no sympathy. I saw only thousands of others whose bodies were as badly mangled as mine. I was given a number and placed in a category. The category was called "Traffic Fatalities."

The day I died was an ordinary school day. How I wish I had taken the bus! But I was too cool for the bus. I remember how I wheeled the car out of Mom's "special favor." I pleaded, "All the kids drive." When the 2:50 bell rang I threw my books in the locker. I was free until 8:40 tomorrow morning. I ran to the parking lot--excited at the thought of driving a car and being my own boss. Free!

It doesn't matter how the accident happened. I was goofing off--going too fast. Taking crazy chances. But I was enjoying my life and having fun. The last thing I remember was passing an old lady who seemed to be going awfully slow. I heard a deafening crash and felt a terrific jolt. Glass and steel flew everywhere. My whole body seemed to be turning inside out. I heard myself scream.

Suddenly I awakened. It was very quiet. A police officer was standing over me. Then I saw a doctor. My body was mangled. I was saturated with blood.

Enjoy Indoor Garden

All Year Long

Do you want to enjoy an indoor garden or landscape year round? Then try a terrarium, says Terry Wilbourn, Extension horticulturist.

Terrariums - miniature gardens or landscapes in glass enclosures - provide a delightful solution to the adverse conditions in most homes for growing plants. Terrariums are useful as decorative furnishings, plant hospitals where sick plants are nursed back to health and as propagating cases.

When planning a terrarium, Wilbourn says to consider the container first. Almost any glass container--old fruit jars, aquariums, goldfish bowls, large bottles, candy jars, apothecary jars or brandy snifters--can be used as long as it is clear.

Put a layer of rocks in the bottom of your container and cover them with old leaves or something similar.

SPORTS

with JOHNNY MARTIN

This weekend the sports world produced more upsets in college and pro football, a very enjoyable golf tournament for members and guests at the Elba Country Club, and a very disappointing Friday night at Elba Tiger fans. We saw Florida, highly rated in the Southeastern Conference in preseason polls, come down in defeat for the second week in succession, this week Mississippi State did the honors. We saw Georgia Tech's great defense show a great deal of class in knocking off Michigan State. We saw the Georgia Tech defense in disarray as the Florida Falcons stood off last minute rally and beat the San Francisco 49ers. Last but not least, the Georgia Tech defense, which had been so good in knocking off Michigan State, was not so good in knocking off the Florida Falcons.

Elba Loses To Opp

The Elba - Opp football game opened with Elba kicking off to Opp and holding the Bobcats and forcing a punt to the Elba 39. This turned out to be bad for Elba as the Opp defense covered an Elba fumble on the 47 yard line and made a game which will be remembered as one of the great do with how the Southeastern Conference stands will look at the end of the season. The Elba Tigers, with a case of fumbles, lost a tough battle with the Opp Bobcats, but what else can be said about a game in which the Tigers turned the ball over to the opponent seven times? The loss of the game was a very severe blow to the team, but the Tigers are quitters, they came back against a high Luerne team two weeks to come from an inexperienced, yet a winning team. The Fourth Annual Deal Memorial Golf Tournament was certainly successful. Everyone who enjoyed it, and the race was in excellent condition for the event. The tournament was kind, although play was suspended about fifteen minutes in a thunder storm. The Elba Country Club track and putt course, did these things well, gained a most desirable victory. 7th Grade Team

Defeats Ft. Deposit

The Elba 7th grade team defeated Ft. Deposit 6-0 Saturday night to remain tied with Brantley for first place standing.

Other action in the league saw Luerne down Highland Home 14-0 and Brantley over Goshen 20-0. Elba travels to Highland Home this Saturday night to try to keep their winning streak going in a game starting at 7:30.

Jackson's

Announce New Son

Sgt. and Mrs. Ray Jackson of Plattsmouth, Nebraska have named their new son, David Ray. He arrived September 21 at 10:00 a.m. in the Ehring Berggust Hospital. Upon arrival he weighed 8 pounds and 4 ounces.

Proud grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Houston Preston Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jackson all of Elba.

Zion Chapel Wins Second Of Season

Zion Chapel won number two Friday night in Skipper's game of last Friday night. Other than to say Opp won 14-0. Nevertheless, the opportunity is to good for me to remain quiet. If Opp had been a little more sloppy, Elba players would have had to get completely off the field for them to do anything. Deeply regret that the Cook boy broke his hand in the ballgame. He has been taking the blame of the abuse when the line refused to block and it was undeserved on his part.

It seemed to me, Elba has been daring someone to defeat them and now that someone has done so, maybe the team is ready to play some football in the Elba tradition.

Alabama and Auburn both won games last Saturday as was expected. This week it could be a little different however. If that Florida quarterback, Reeves had been canned last year when he started complaining because his new coach wanted to actually coach, then Florida would probably have a decent football team now instead of two losses. Alabama will win going away.

The Rebels of Zion Chapel put 7 more points on the board before intermission, with Butch Flowers taking it in from the three. Doster again kicked the point and led 19 to 0 at the half time 26-0.

The third quarter saw little scoring as Zion Chapel played some new numbers. However, a Grant to Doster pass covered 51 yards and a point and Doster added the point after for the final score. Zion Chapel 33-0 Long High 8.

Standouts on offense for Zion Chapel were Dennis Kelley, Wayne Grant, Butch Flowers and Larry Doster. Grant hit on 4 out of 6 passes for 107 yards.

ROSES

Mrs. William Turnage on Averett Street in Enterprise likes to grow roses. Folks who have real importance of a good spraying or dusting program throughout the year. Benlate, which is one of the better peanut fungicides, is excellent in the control of diseases of roses. Benlate comes in two-pound packages, but this is entirely too much for the average homeowner. I hope the seed and insecticide stores will start breaking down some of these packages and sell them in smaller quantities they need. Of course, it may be that some of the rose materials will have smaller packages of this material.

WINTER GRAZING

A lot of folks like to follow the old adage and graze with winter grazing. In recent years Coffee County farmers have planted a lot of rye rather than oats. Rye produces a lot more grazing and is much more winter hardy than oats. Quite a few folks will plant wheat and combine this and follow with grain sorghum. A lot of people are fertilizing peanuts in advance to do this is to get corn harvested early and then plant with a crop of rye. If planted early enough, this will furnish lots of grazing and cover in December. The same corn, February and March.

SOIL TESTING

As soon as the peanut harvest is over, I hope that a lot of Coffee County farmers will begin soil testing. Farmers have enough problems that they can't control. However, soil fertility is one thing they can control. More and more people are using the soil

I believe that most local nurseries and garden centers in the county will have good quality plants. Plant 7-10 inches apart in one-half inch deep holes. Light application of 8-8-8, will strengthen the grass fertilizer. After each application of fertilizer, make it come out stranger and better next year.

First runner-up in the little miss contest was Lisa Wyrosdick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Wyrosdick, and second runner-up was Karen Walden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Walden.

The push is now on by the Elba band to sell Birthday calendars. This year the 5th and 6th grade youngsters are leading the push and will be calling on local residents within the next week.
